DAN SMOOT

FOURTH ROLL CALLS

Herein is tabulated the fourth group of roll call votes made in the United States Congress during 1963: 14 roll calls in the Senate; 11 in the House. These, plus others reported during the year, make 64 roll call votes tabulated for the First Session of the 88th Congress: 34 in the Senate; 30 in the House.

Computing percentages on all 34 Senate roll calls tabulated this year, we find that 5 United States Senators have a conservative voting record of 80% or better:

Strom Thurmond (Dem., S. C.) — 94%; Barry Goldwater (Rep., Ariz.) — 93%; John G. Tower (Rep., Texas) — 88%; Carl T. Curtis (Rep., Neb.) — 86%; Milward L. Simpson (Rep., Wyo.) — 82%.

Computing percentages on all 30 House roll calls tabulated to date, we find that 19 United States Representatives have a conservative voting record 90% or better. Seventeen of the best U. S. Representatives are Republicans; 2 are Democrats:

100% — Ralph F. Beermann (Rep., Neb.), August E. Johansen (Rep., Mich.)

97% — John M. Ashbrook (Rep., Ohio), Joe Pool (Dem., Texas)

96% — Clarence E. Kilburn (Rep., N.Y.)

93% — Bruce Alger (Rep., Texas), Donald C. Bruce (Rep., Ind.), Durward G. Hall (Rep., Mo.), Elmer J. Hoffman (Rep., Ill.), James B. Utt (Rep., Calif.)

92% — Homer E. Abele (Rep., Ohio), Ed Foreman (Rep., Texas), Dave Martin (Rep., Neb.), William E. Minshall (Rep., Ohio)

90% — Donald D. Clancy (Rep., Ohio), Glenn Cunningham (Rep., Neb.), James A. Haley (Dem. Fla.), James H. Quillen (Rep., Tenn.), M. G. Snyder (Rep., Ky.)

International Coffee Agreement

On May 21, 1963, the United States Senate (by a stand of 74 to 22) ratified the International Coffee Agreement Treaty which, in effect, empowers an international cartel to control prices and shipments of coffee throughout the world. The Treaty guarantees large annual coffee sales for communist Cuba, while denying guarantees to Japan and Nationalist China.

On November 14, 1963, the House (by a stand of 203 to 166) passed HR 8864, to implement the Coffee Agreement for two years. The votes are recorded in column 21 under Senate; in column 27 under House. C indicates a conservative stand against this international price fixing.

Manpower Training

On September 4, 1963, the Senate (by a stand of 61 to 28) approved S 1716, extending the unconstitutional Manpower Training program for two years and increasing the cost to 326 million dollars. On September 6, 1963, the Senate (by a stand of 58 to 33) approved S 1831, expanding the Manpower program and authorizing another 100 million dollars. These votes are recorded in columns 22 and 23 under Senate. C is a conservative stand against.

Aid To Education

On September 12, 1963, the Senate (by a stand of 85 to 10) passed HR 12, authorizing (1) unlimited funds for loans to medical students, and (2) $175,000,000 for grants to construct medical school facilities. This vote is recorded in column 24 under Senate. C is a conservative vote against.

HR 4955: (1) increased annual authorization for grants to state and local vocational schools from 57 million to 243 million dollars; (2) expanded the scope of vocational education activities; (3) extended the National Defense Education Act for another two years; and (4) extended for another two years the program of federal aid to schools in "federally impacted" areas — areas where large numbers of federal personnel, civilian or military, create special school problems. The Senate approved this Bill on October 8, 1963; but it was different from a version approved by the House. A conference, or compromise, version was approved by the Senate on December 13; by the House on December 12. The Senate vote, recorded in column 28 under Senate, reflects the stand of Senators on HR 4955 as originally approved, and on the conference version. The House vote, tabulated in column 30 under House, reflects the stand of Representatives on the conference version of HR 4955. C indicates a conservative stand against HR 4955.

Disarmament Agency and Test Ban Treaty

On November 20, 1963, the House (by a stand of 257 to 138) passed S 777, authorizing a 100% increase in Disarmament Agency funds for the next two years. The vote is recorded in column 28 under House. C is a conservative stand against.

On September 24, 1963, the Senate (by a stand of 81 to 19) ratified the Test Ban Treaty. This was one of the first results of the Disarmament Agency's activities. This vote is recorded in column 25 under Senate. C is a conservative stand against.

Fishing Boat Construction Subsidies

On October 2, 1963, the Senate (by a stand of 77 to 17) passed S 1006, extending subsidies for the construction of new fishing boats for another 5 years. This program was initiated during the Eisenhower administration as a result of financial difficulties encountered by American fishermen because of heavy competition from foreign nations, especially Japan.

The vote is listed in column 26 under Senate, C indicating a conservative stand against.

Civil Rights Commission

On October 1, 1963, the Senate (by a stand of 80 to 17) voted to extend the life of the Civil Rights Commission for one year. This extension was in the form of an amendment, or rider, by Senator Everett McKinley Dirksen (Republican, Illinois) to a private bill (HR 3369).

The "rider" technique prohibited the House from taking a separate vote on the Civil Rights Commission question. Hence, HR 3369, signed into law (PL 88-152) on October 7, 1963, extended the life of the Civil Rights Commission, without specific approval of the House of Representatves. The Senate vote is recorded in column 27, under Senate. C is a conservative stand against.

Water Pollution Agency

On October 16, 1963, the Senate (by a stand of 84 to 12) passed S 649, establishing a federal Water Pollution Control Agency. This legislation authorizes the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare to issue regulations preventing the manufacture and use of detergents he determines will contribute to "interstate pollution" of streams and water. The Secretary is also empowered to obtain court orders compelling states to comply with his regulations. This vote is recorded in column 29 under Senate. C is a conservative stand against.

Foreign Aid

On August 23, 1963, the House passed the Foreign Assistance Act of 1963 (HR 7885), authorizing 3.5 billion dollars in foreign aid for the coming fiscal year.

In the Senate, efforts were made to amend the Act before it was passed. Senator Frank J. Lausche (Democrat, Ohio) proposed an amendment to prevent the President from continuing to give "most-favored-nations" tariff treatment to communist Yugoslavia and communist Poland. Most-favored-nations treatment means placing our lowest tariff rates against the goods of a nation which applies its lowest tariff rates to our goods. The Senate rejected the Lausche amendment. The Senate adopted an amendment to the Foreign Aid Act proposed by Senator Hubert Humphrey (Democrat, Minnesota), exempting the Peace Corps and the Cultural Exchanges Program from any restrictions imposed by Congress on any other foreign aid activities.

On November 15, 1963, the Senate passed its revised version of the Foreign Aid Bill, authorizing 3.7 billion dollars — 200 million dollars more than the House had authorized on August 23.

On December 9, 1963, the House approved a conference version of the Foreign Aid Bill. The Senate approved the conference version on December 15.

Three Senate roll calls on the Foreign Aid Bill are tabulated below. In column 30, under Senate, C indicates a conservative stand for the Lausche amendment to end most-favored-nations treatment of communist nations. In column 31, under Senate, C indicates a conservative vote against the Humphrey amendment. In column 32, under Senate, C indicates a conservative vote against the Foreign Aid Bill itself.

In column 20, under House, C indicates a conservative vote against the Foreign Aid Bill, as it was originally passed in the House and as it was revised in conference.

District of Columbia Welfare

On November 18, 1963, Senator Abraham Ribicoff (Democrat, Connecticut) sponsored an administration amendment to a House Bill (HR 7531), attempting to extend general federal public welfare assistance programs to the District of Columbia. The Senate (by a stand of 50 to 40) rejected this move — primarily because of recent disclosures about corruption and abuse in the District of Columbia welfare programs. The Senate vote is tabulated in column 33 under Senate. C is a conservative vote against extending federal welfare programs to the District.

Data Processing

HR 5171 authorized the General Services Administration to purchase and maintain all data processing equipment used by all federal agencies. Primary opposition to the Bill resulted from security considerations. With all classified data controlled by one agency, a security leak in that agency could endanger all classified secrets of the federal government. For these reasons, such agencies as the National Aeronautics and Space Administration opposed HR 5171. The Bill was also opposed on grounds of economy. United States Representative Joe Pool (Democrat, Texas) noted that the Bill does not provide for competitive bidding. The Comptroller General testified that the government is already losing millions of dollars a year by negotiating contracts for data processing machines, instead of purchasing them through the process of competitive bids.

Nonetheless, the House (by voice vote on July 18, 1963) approved HR 5171, although many agencies and departments affected had not been given an opportunity to testify in hearings on the Bill.

United States Representative August E. Johansen (Republican, Michigan) introduced a motion to recommit HR 5171, saying it was so badly written and so strongly opposed by many federal agencies on security grounds that further hearings should be held. The House, by a stand of 263 to 101, defeated the Johansen motion to recommit. This vote is tabulated in column 21 under House. C indicates a conservative vote against HR 5171.

House Resolution 314 would have authorized a trip (by Roman L. Pucinski and four other members of a subcommittee on Education and Labor) to Moscow for a study of the Soviet Union's data processing center. The purpose of the proposed trip was to get information which might encourage Congress to finance a similar "data processing center" for the United States. On October 28, 1963, the House (by a stand of 199 to 154) rejected House Resolution 314. This vote is recorded in column 25 under House. C indicates a conservative vote against sending the House group to Moscow.

National Science Foundation

On November 20, 1963, the Senate (by a stand of 65 to 22) defeated an administration effort to increase funds for the National Science Foundation by $49,800,000. This vote is recorded in Column 34 under Senate. C is a conservative vote against increasing the funds.

Mental Health Funds

On September 10, 1963, the House passed S 1576, authorizing 238 million dollars for a three-year program of federal aid to construct local mental health centers and research facilities, and to train teachers for the mentally retarded. The Bill was revised in conference to make it coincide with a Senate version. The house passed the conference version of the Mental Health Funds Bill on October 21, 1963. The House vote is recorded in column 22 under House. C is a conservative vote against the Bill.

Tax Cut

On September 25, 1963, the House (by a stand of 272 to 155) passed HR 8363. This Bill, presently stalled in the Senate, was one of the late President Kennedy's two most important bills. Although it would, presumably, lower some personal and corporation income taxes, it would raise taxes on many lower and middle-income individuals. A main conservative objection to the Bill is that it reduces revenue without reduction in spending, thus causing more deficit financing and increased debt. Vote on the Bill is recorded in column 23 under House. C is a conservative vote against.

History Control

On October 15, 1963, the House (by a stand of 185 to 181) passed HR 6237, authorizing $500,000 a year, for five years, to federal agencies, state and local agencies, and non-profit organizations for the "collecting, describing, editing, and publishing . . . of documentary sources significant to the history of the United States." United States Representative Richard H. Poff (Republican, Virginia), arguing that such scholastic projects should be financed privately, said the Bill confers upon federal agencies the power to rewrite the history of this country. Vote on this Bill is recorded in column 24 under House. C is a conservative vote against. The Bill is pending in the Senate.

National Debt

On November 7, 1963, the House (by a stand of 210 to 202) passed HR 8969, authorizing another (the third in this session) "temporary" increase in the national debt (to 315 billion dollars). The vote is tabulated in column 26 under House. C indicates a conservative stand against. The Senate has also passed the Bill. The Senate vote will be recorded in a subsequent Report.

D. C. Subway

On December 9, 1963, the House (by a stand of 285 to 83) rejected HR 8929. Originally proposed by President Kennedy in a special message to Congress on May 27, 1963, and endorsed by President Johnson, this Bill would have authorized a publicly-owned subway rail transit system for the city of Washington. The project would have required direct federal expenditures of 120 million dollars, and federal underwriting of $258,900,000 in bonds. The vote is tabulated in column 29 under House. C is a conservative vote against.

Consequences

When members of Congress vote for federal aid to education, federal water pollution control, foreign aid, federal subsidies to the fishing industry — they vote for unconstitutional programs, because our Constitution does not authorize such federal activities. No matter how admirable the intent of such programs, when we permit the federal government to engage in activities for which it has no constitutional authority, we endorse lawless government—which will eventually become total dictatorship.

Bound Volumes

In the coming months of fateful political struggle, Bound Volumes of this Report will be invaluable reference books for all who want enlightened understanding of the great issues. Volumes prior to 1962 are sold out and cannot be reprinted. Volume VIII is still available, however. It contains all Reports published during the 1962 calendar year — more than 400 pages of research and analysis, bound in maroon fabrikoid, extensively indexed, and with a table of contents. Volume VIII presents:

(1) Tabulations of 16 important roll call votes in the U. S. Senate during 1962, of 22 in the House.

(2) Ratings of all Senators and Representatives, based on their actual votes, for the year 1962.

(3) The full text of the U. S. Constitution and amendments, fully indexed, with commentary relating this basic law to contemporary problems.

(4) A series of Reports on the Supreme Court's Prayer Decision, with historical research tracing revolutions in constitutional doctrine which have corrupted the meaning of our organic law — together with recommended action for curbing the Court and restoring law.

(5) Extensive discussions of such subjects as: Withholding Tax, Mississippi Tragedy, Berlin, Cuba, Laos, Congo, Council on Foreign Relations, Progressive Education, European Common Market, World Government, Wages of Socialism.

Bound Volume IX (containing all Reports published during 1963 calendar year) will be available for delivery about February 15, 1964. It will be bound to match previous editions, and will be extensively indexed. Bound Volume IX will present:

(1) Tabulations of 64 important roll call votes in the U. S. Congress during 1963.

(2) Documented discussions of great controversies which will be issues in the 1964 elections, including Urban Renewal, Socialized Medicine, Alliance for Progress, General Foreign Aid, Deficit Financing, Tragedy of U. S. Membership in the UN, Disarmament, Civil Rights, Political Use of the Military Forces, Growing Strength of the Conservative Movement and Liberal Efforts to Suppress It.

(3) A clear account of the assassination of President Kennedy, and of the aftermath.

Bound Volume IX (1963 calendar year) may be ordered now for late February delivery: $10.00 postpaid. Bound Volume VIII (1962) may be ordered for immediate delivery, same price.
